Coordinated Access is a new resource to help those who are homeless (or within days of eviction) access appropriate housing and services. Please keep in mind that, due to limited resources, we may not be able to assist you in finding an immediate resource.

If you are currently receiving case management services of any kind from Washington County, please start by contact your County case manager.

Coordinated Access services are provided by 3 different agencies, depending on the household needing help: single adults, families with children, or unaccompanied youth:

Youth under age 22:

Call Canvas Health 651-251-5214

Families with children:

Call St. Andrews Community Resource Center 651-762-9124

Single Adults/Couples:

Call Washington County Community Services 651-430-6488

Resources for Households At Risk of Homelessness:

The above services are for people who are currently homeless or are within days of eviction. If you are not yet homeless but worry you may soon be, please contact:

Washington County Emergency Assistance 651-430-6455

The Salvation Army at 651-739-6288
