Council Memo

To: Mayor Palmquist and City Council Members
From: Ron Moorse, City Administrator
Date: November 7, 2024
Re: Canvassing of the 2024 Local Election Results

The purpose of the canvass of the election is to review the election results of the local election and certify the results as presented. The County has advised that they will provide the official election results report by November 8. The election report will be emailed to the Council and posted as a supplemental meeting packet.

Council Action Requested

Motion regarding certifying the local election results as presented.
